

GARDNER BREATHES FREEDOM'S AIE.

AFTER CALLING ON HIS LAWYER, HE GOES TO SEE HIS FATHER FOR THE FIRST TIME.

Charles W. Gardner, the agent of the Parkhurst society who was convicted of extortion in General Sessions and sentenced to two years' imprisonment, was released yesterday. The decision of the General Term reversing the verdict was handed down on Friday, but not until yesterday was the prisoner's counsel able to find one of the judges who sat in General Term, so as to get the order of release signed. Judge O'Brien was found at the Bar Association. He would not consent to the sum of the order as prepared by Frank Moss, who is now the defendant's counsel.

Mr. Moss inserted in the document the statement that the conviction had been reversed on the law and the facts. Had the order been signed in this form District Attorney Green could not have carried it to the Court of Appeals.

Gardner modified the paper so as to preserve Mr. Nicoll's right to make the appeal. The Judge struck out the word "and the facts," and added "and no other." The Bureau of Naval Navigation is to be reappointed, and if confirmed will remain in the Bureau until he is promoted to rear admiral, and will then be ordered to command the European Squadron, and have the cruiser New York as his flagship.
